

- 9. The construction and material specifications, including, but not limited to applicable specifications for:
 - a. Earthen fill
 - b. Excavation
 - c. Concrete
 - d. Reinforcing steel
 - e. Timber
 - f. Pipes
 - g. Safety fencing around facility, if needed.

- 10. Provisions for adequate drainage and control of runoff to prevent pollution of surface and groundwater.

- 11. A time schedule for construction of the facility.

- 12. The operation and design for structures use in transferring animal manure into and from the storage facility.

- 13. A whole-farm nutrient management plan as per USDA Natural Resource Conservation Service (NRCS) Standard 590, which is based on the latest University of Wisconsin-College of Agriculture and Life Sciences research recommendations.